

Before using Apple Watch, review the user guide—including “Safety, handling, and support”—at support.apple.com/guide/watch. Retain documentation for future reference.

Get Started

 Press and hold to turn on Apple Watch.

 Charge with magnetic charger.

Exposure to Radio Frequency

For radio frequency exposure information for Apple Watch, open the Apple Watch app on iPhone and tap My Watch, then go to General > About > Legal > RF Exposure. Or go to apple.com/legal/rfexposure.

Battery and Charging

The lithium-ion battery in Apple Watch should be serviced or recycled by Apple or an authorized service provider. You may receive a replacement Apple Watch when ordering battery service. Batteries must be recycled or disposed of separately from household waste. For information about battery service and recycling, go to apple.com/batteries/service-and-recycling.

Medical Device Interference

Apple Watch, some of the bands, and Apple Watch magnetic charging accessories contain magnets that may interfere with medical devices. See “Important safety information” in the Apple Watch User Guide.

Avoid Hearing Damage

To prevent possible hearing damage, do not listen at high volume levels for long periods. More information about sound and hearing is available online at apple.com/sound.

Regulatory

Regulatory certification information is available on-device. Go to Settings > General > Regulatory.

Disposal and Recycling Information

The symbol above means that according to local laws and regulations your product and/or its battery shall be disposed of separately from household waste. When this product reaches its end of life, take it to a collection point designated by local authorities. The separate collection and recycling of your product and/or its battery at the time of disposal will help conserve natural resources and ensure that it is recycled in a manner that protects human health and the environment. For information about Apple's recycling program, recycling collection points, restricted substances, and other environmental initiatives, visit apple.com/environment.

Apple One-Year Limited Warranty Summary

Apple warrants the included hardware product and accessories against defects in materials and workmanship for one year from the date of original retail purchase. Apple does not warrant against normal wear and tear, nor damage caused by accident or abuse. To obtain service, call Apple or visit an Apple Store or an Apple Authorized Service Provider—available service options are dependent on the country in which service is requested and may be restricted to the original country of sale. Call charges and international shipping charges may apply, depending on the location. Subject to the full terms and detailed information on obtaining service available at apple.com/legal/warranty and support.apple.com, if you submit a valid claim under this warranty, Apple will either repair, replace, or refund your hardware device at its own discretion. Warranty benefits are in addition to rights provided under local consumer laws. You may be required to furnish proof of purchase details when making a claim under this warranty.
